

FEW GLIMPSE OF INDORE & MP

RAJWADA palace is a popular tourist spot inside Indore city of Madhya Pradesh state. While going for Indore local sightseeing you will observe that it is one of the oldest historical structure in the city. It was built in 1747 A.D. by founder of Holkar dynasty -Malhar Rao Holkar. In and around Indore city we will notice most of the historical monuments and marks are of Holkar dynasty as they ruled here for long duration and was the last dynasty before Britishers

UJJAIN An ancient city situated on the eastern bank of the Kshipra River, Ujjain was the most prominent city on the Malwaplateau of central India for much of its history.. It was the capital of the ancient Avanti kingdom, one of the sixteen mahajanapadas. Simhastha is a mass Hindu pilgrimage, and one of the fairs recognized as KumbhMelas At Ujjain, it is held once every 12 years, on the banks of Kshipra river. It is also known as Simhastha.. TheSimhastha will be held in Ujjain from 21 April 2016 to 22 May 2016.

MANDU The earliest reference to Mandu is available in the Sanskrit inscription of 555 AD, which tells that Mandu was a fortified city even in the 6th century BC. Then ruler AllaiddinKhilji named Mandav as "Shadiabad" meaning the city of happiness (AnandNagari), after the name of princess MandviChouhan of Khandwa.

OMKARESHWAR is a Hindu temple dedicated to God Shiva. It is one of the 12 revered Jyotirlinga shrines of Shiva. It is on an island called Mandhata or Shivapuri in the Narmada river; the shape of the island is said to be like the Hindu symbol.

SANCHI doesn't need any introduction for being already tagged as one of the most significant places in India. The place is all about Buddhism and is a small village that is located at a distance of about fifty-two kilometers from Bhopal, Madhya Pradesh. Sanchi is a famous sightseeing destination that has innumerable Buddhist structures, pillars and monasteries.

BHEDAGHAT Soaring in glittering splendour, the Marble Rocks at Bhedaghat rise to a hundred feet on either side of the Narmada. The serene loveliness of the scene is one of cool quiet, the sunlight sparkling on the marble-white pinnacles and casting dappled shadows on the pellucid waters.
